

Consent Form for Data Usage
STATS 605, 2023 Fall
Department of Statistics
University of Michigan, Ann Arbor
Instructor: Yang Chen

By signing this form, the investigators consent with the following:

- (a) The data shared with Yang Chen on Dropbox will be shared with all or a subset of students who take STATS 605 in 2023 Fall at the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor.
- (b) One or all of the investigators' names and contact information will be shared with the students, together with the datasets.
- (c) The students' final reports (and possibly code) will be shared with the investigators of the corresponding dataset, with copyright belonging to the students and the instructor.
- (d) In the case where the students want to use the data for writing papers or giving public presentations, the students need to inform the investigators and have an agreement on authorship. This is determined on a case-by-case basis.
- (e) The investigators confirm that the data does not involve any sensitive information that requires extra steps of clearance before using.
